

Two Simple Ways to Make A Legacy Gift to Lummi Island Congregational Church:

Name Lummi Island Congregational Church as a beneficiary of your retirement account or life insurance policy.

Perhaps the easiest way to make a legacy gift is to name Lummi Island Congregational Church as a beneficiary of your Individual Retirement Account (IRA), other retirement plan, or life insurance policy. If you have online access to your account, doing so may take only a few minutes. You may make Lummi Island Congregational Church as the primary or contingent beneficiary and provide our address (PO Box 6, Lummi Island, WA 98262) and Federal Tax ID number 13-1957221.

Make a charitable bequest through your Will.

The terms of your Will can define your gift of a dollar amount, specific property, or a percentage of your estate. The following bequest language offers several choices for you and your attorney to consider:

Suggested Language for Charitable Bequest:

"I hereby give, devise and bequeath to Lummi Island Congregational Church, a non-profit charitable organization located in Whatcom County, WA, with Federal Tax ID number 13-1957221 ...

*(the sum of $_____) OR (____ percent of my estate) OR (specific items of property)
OR (all or $_____) of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate*

...as an unrestricted gift to be used at the discretion of its Council who may determine how best to apply such gift towards the work of the Lummi Island Congregational Church(or for specific purpose)."

If you have already included Lummi Island Congregational Church in your estate plans, please let us know so that we may thank you during your lifetime!
